DEBBIE M. WALKER, MBA, CGFO, PRESIDENT-ELECT FALL CONFERENCE CHAIR

Greetings, the 28th Annual Fall Conference Committee has been selected and the planning of a great conference is well under way! The GFOASC Fall Conference is scheduled for October 7 – 10, 2012 at the Marriott Grande Dunes in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. The theme for this year's conference is "Step Into The Rhythm of Leadership". How do we define the importance of good Leadership? Everyone has their own idea and many efforts have been made to define it as well. President Harry S. Truman came close to defining the importance good leadership when he said, "In periods where there is no leadership, society stands still". Therefore, your leadership is key in moving your organizations or institutions forward. We are faced with many issues in today's economy and the new norm, of doing much more with less.

We, as leaders, do not want to become stagnant in our positions as finance officers but to continue to move our organizations forward and to provide motivation and encouragement to our staff and fellow colleagues in tough times.

Dr. Dale Henry of Your Best Unlimited, a nationally renowned speaker, will deliver our keynote address this year. Dr. Henry has served in many roles and many corporations, governments, and educational agencies call on him regularly to train their professional staff! This will be an awesome session for everyone!

We will also have Mr. Stephen J. Gauthier, who is the director of the Technical Services Center of the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA), where he has served for the past 25 years. Mr. Gauthier has written and spoken extensively on a wide range of accounting, auditing, and financial reporting topics. He is the author of the Governmental Accounting, Auditing, and Financial Reporting (GAAFR) - The Blue Book. There will be many more great speakers!

Also, new this year, GrooveTown Entertainment, www.groovetownband.com, will perform during Sunday's Opening Reception and our Tuesday night Banquet!

We are planning an awesome conference and the Committee and I look forward to seeing everyone at the beach. As a reminder the attendee and vendor registration officially opened June 15th. Please register for the conference and make your hotel reservations early. The registration code for the Marriott Grande Dunes is GFOGFOA, the rate is approximately $84 plus $2 parking per night. Please visit www.gfoasc.org for more details. The conference program is near completion and will be posted to the website soon.

See you at the Conference, Debbie M. Walker, MBA, CGFO, Fall Conference Chair

2012 SPRING CONFERENCE CONFERENCE CHAIR ~ WILLIAM HALL

Monday, May 7, 2012—Education, Fellowship, and Enjoyment—were the goals for the 2012 GFOASC Spring Conference held at the Columbia Metropolitan Convention Center. As the morning progressed the registration for the attendees and sponsors began. The conference was underway.

Mayor Steven Benjamin opened the conference with a welcome to Columbia. Mark Hobbs, The Hobbs Group, delivered the keynote address, Tammy Nichols shared an update on SC Retirement System and then breakout sessions began. Lunchtime finally arrived! The ultimate closing of the conference, Glenda Doles presented “What you get out of Life”. Was that a session or was that a session!!! (I know William Hall is not getting on any more horses).

The conference committee began working in November with the meeting held at the DSS Building hosted by Scott Ludlam and continued every third Wednesday of each month at the Richland County Library, hosted by Sarah Sullivan. It was a privilege and honor to have been able to work with such a dedicated, devoted group of people. Each member brought to the table various views and expertise that blended to produce the most fantastic spring conference ever.

The remarks and comments listed on the evaluation form for the 2012 GFOASC Spring Conference indicated that all the goals of the committee were met...”organized and efficient, well run, enthusiastic, best speakers...”

Now that spring has sprung, let us look to the future. Ms. President-Elect, Debbie Walker is heading up the Fall Conference, October 7-10. This should be fun, exciting and energetic. Mark your calendar and make plans to be in Myrtle Beach. I’ll see you there!

2012 GFOA NATIONAL CONFERENCE

GFOASC was well represented at the 2012 GFOA National Conference held last month in Chicago. We had approximately 15 attendees from our organization. A special shout-out to our own Larry Sapp and David Vehaun who were presenters at the conference, as well as Anne Harty, who facilitated a session.

Attendees had a great time at the opening reception at the Field Museum, as well as the Tuesday reception at the Navy Pier. A few of us got to see the Jon Hancock Building as well as Wrigley Field. But don't worry, we did spend some time in the sessions as well. On Monday, Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel did a great job as the keynote speaker, laying out his vision for City of Chicago. On Tuesday, political pundit Mark Shields gave a very humorous and non-partisan presentation on politics and elections over the past fifty years. The break-out sessions were very well attended, especially the Annual Auditing and Accounting Update with GFOA's Stephen Gauthier as one of the co-presenters. President-Elect Debbie Walker and I also spent a fair amount of time in the vendor exhibit hall making new relationships with various vendors in hopes of convincing many of them to sponsor this year's GFOASC Fall Conference. Who wouldn't want to come to Myrtle in October?

Overall, the GFOA National Conference was a rousing success and we are looking forward to next year's conference in San Francisco.
