

2018 GFOASC Board of Directors

(#3) President Elect

Choose ONE

The President-Elect shall assist the President in the performance of his/her duties, and shall assume such other duties as are assigned by the President. In the absence of the President, the President-Elect shall assume the duties of the President, and shall preside at the meetings of the Association. In the event that the President shall be unable to serve, the President-Elect shall succeed to the office of the President for the remainder of the President's term.

In addition, the President-Elect shall be responsible for the annual Fall Conference of the Association.

The President-Elect shall serve as the President of the Association for the term following his/her term as President-Elect.

Sheila W. Smith, MBA

Sheila W. Smith serves as the Associate Vice President for Business Affairs for Midlands Technical College, where she has been employed since 2000. Prior to becoming the AVP she has held other positions within the college; Budget Director and Grants Manager. She received her Master's Degree from Strayer University in Business Administration.

Sheila has been a member of Government Finance Officers Association of South Carolina (GFOASC) for 11 years. She served on the GFOASC board as a director and has also served as the 2016 GFOASC Spring Conference Chair and on many Fall Conference Committees. She's been a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and University Business Officers (SACUBO) for 8 years.

"GFOASC has provided me with some excellent professional development opportunities over the years. I look forward to serving on the Board and getting involved with the planning of professional development activities for the Organization's members."

Juan M. Sims

Juan M. Sims is currently the Controller for the SC Commission for the Blind.

Juan has also worked in accounting and budgets at the SC Department of Corrections and SC Department of Transportation before going to work at SCCB. Juan went to SCCB as the Budget Manager and after two years was promoted to Director of Finance.

Juan holds a BS in Accounting from South Carolina State University. He has been a member of GFOASC since 2000 and is serving his second term on the GFOASC Executive Board. During this term, Juan oversaw the creation of the GFOASC Blog Web Page and previously he chaired the Ethics Committee. He has also worked on the Spring Conference Committee and is currently on the Fall Conference Committee.

Juan enjoys the networking, and values friendships formed thru GFOASC. He believes that the members are a great source for a wealth of information in trying to get your job done and done right. He enjoys white water rafting and traveling, and he's a member of Journey United Methodist Church.