BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I – NAME

Section 1 – Name:

The name of this Association is the Government Finance Officers Association of South Carolina.

Section 2 – Use of Name:

Only the full and proper name of the Association or the abbreviation “GFOASC” shall be used in all transactions conducted for or in the name of the Association. Abbreviated forms of the Association’s name other than GFOASC shall not be used by any member or officer conducting business for or in the name of the Association.

Section 3 – Affiliation:

The Association is affiliated with the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada. As part of that affiliation, the names of the President of the Association and a member designated as the State Representative to GFOA of the U.S. and Canada shall be reported annually to the GFOA of the U.S. and Canada. Annual Conference attendance and membership dues in GFOA of the U.S. and Canada for these two persons shall be paid by the Association.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE

Section 1 – Subscription to Purpose:

All persons who desire to become members of this Association shall subscribe to the purposes of the Association as outlined in Article III of the Constitution.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 – Admission to Membership:

Any eligible person or agency may be admitted to membership upon payment of current annual dues. The eligible person (or persons or an agency) shall become a member at such time as his/her name is added to the membership rolls. Members shall be designated to one of the following categories of membership which reflects their governmental unit or affiliation: State;

County; City; Public Institution of Higher Learning; Special District; Enterprise Agency; Retired; Honorary; or Associate.

Section 2 – Classes of Membership:

This Association shall consist of Regular, Honorary, Agency, Retired, and Associate members.

- (a) Regular Members. Regular membership in the Association shall be restricted to eligible persons who are actively engaged in governmental financial activities of any State, County, Municipal, School District, Public Institutions of Higher Learning, Special Purpose Districts, Political Subdivision, or Enterprise Agency.
- (b) Honorary Members. Honorary membership may be bestowed upon any person(s), who as determined by the Board of Directors, has (have) made an outstanding contribution to the advancement of governmental finance activities so that their efforts deserve public recognition. The title of “Honorary Member” is bestowed upon the individual rather than the position/title the honoree may hold. Honorary membership is bestowed for the life of the honoree. Based on the recommendation of the Executive Committee the Board of Directors will vote on Honorary Memberships.
- (c) Agency Members. Agency membership shall be in the name of any State, County, Municipal, School District, Public Institutions of Higher Learning, Special Purpose Districts, Political Subdivision, or Enterprise Agency which is actively engaged in governmental financial activities. The rates charged for Agency memberships shall be reviewed and updated annually by the Board.
- (d) Retired Members. Retired membership shall be any regular member who wishes to remain a member of the Association on his/her retirement from employment.
- (e) Associate Members. Associate membership shall be any individual, non-governmental, private business, or corporation with an interest in governmental financial activities.

Section 3 – Prerogatives:

All members shall enjoy the same rights and privileges, except as stated in Article III, Section 4. Each member shall be entitled to vote on all questions before the Association membership, vote in the election of officers, and to be eligible for appointment to standing or special committees. Associate members shall have no voting rights or serve on any committees. For more details, see Article V, Section 6 and Article VII.

Section 4 – Officers:

Any Regular or Agency Member shall be eligible for election as an officer of the Association.

Section 5 – Dues:

The dues' structure shall be reviewed and established annually by the Board of Directors and approved by the membership. Honorary members shall not be assessed annual dues. Dues shall be invoiced by January 31st and paid upon receipt. CGFOs must pay by the CPE filing deadline of their annual report.

Section 6 – Disciplinary Action:

Under such conditions and by such procedure as the Board of Directors may prescribe, the Board of Directors, by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting, may expel a member, or by a majority vote of the members present and voting, may suspend a member for a period not to exceed five years, or may reprimand, censure, or impose such lesser sanctions as the Board may prescribe on any member if the member:

- (a) Is convicted in a Court of Law of a crime punishable by imprisonment for more than one year or is convicted of any crime with an element of which is dishonesty or fraud, under the laws of the United States, of this State, or another state if the acts involved would have constituted a crime under the laws of this State. The record of conviction or a copy of the record, certified by the clerk of court or the judge whose court the conviction is had, is conclusive evidence of the conviction and conviction shall include a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere;
- (b) Infringes any of these By-Laws or any rule of the Professional Code of Ethics;
- (c) Is declared by any competent court to be insane or otherwise incompetent;
- (d) Fails to cooperate with the Professional Ethics Committee in any disciplinary investigation or the member by not making a substantive response to interrogatories or a request for documents.

ARTICLE IV – OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, AND STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Section 1 – Government:

The Association shall be governed by a Board of Directors with a membership composition as herein described and with duties and responsibilities as herein defined.

Section 2 – Board of Directors:

- (a) Composition. The Board of Directors shall be composed of the President, President-Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, Past President, State Representative to National, and four Directors all elected at the annual fall meetings of the Association. The Secretary, Treasurer, State Representative, and Directors shall serve terms of two (2) years. The President-Elect, President, and Past President shall serve a term of one (1) year in each position. The Past President shall serve of the Board of Directors only for the period he/she is the immediate Past President. All terms shall run concurrently with the Association's fiscal year(s).
- (b) Duties and Powers. The Board of Directors shall have general charge, management, and control of the affairs, funds, and properties of the Association. The Board of Directors shall, by appointment, fill for the unexpired term any vacancy occurring in its membership, except where otherwise stated in these By-Laws. The Board of Directors shall have exclusive power to accept or reject membership nominees for Honorary Membership. The Board of Directors may at its discretion, authorize the appointment of special consultants for wither general or specific purposes. The term for such special consultants shall be for as long as necessary to accomplish the objective for which they were appointed. Appointment of such consultants shall be made by the President with approval of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have the power to discipline members under the terms and conditions specified in these By-Laws.

- (c) Meetings and Quorum. The Board of Directors shall meet upon call of the President or any three members of said Board. A majority of the Board members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the event of a tie, the President or Board member presiding at a Board meeting shall cast the deciding vote. Board members who are unable to be physically present, but who attend via electronic means, such as conference calling, Skype, or Face time, shall also be allowed to vote. Written notice shall be given ten (10) days before the date of the meeting. If the meeting is urgent and time will not permit a written notice, a waiver may be ratified at the meeting.

Section 3 – Officers:

The Officers of the Association shall be the President, President-Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Section 4 – President:

The President shall be the Chief Executive and Chairperson of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee of the Association, and shall preside at all meetings of the Association, the Board of Directors, and the Executive Committee. The President shall have general responsibility for the activities of the Association, and perform all other duties usually associated with the office of the President. The President shall serve as a voting member of the Nominating Committee and as an ex-officio member of all other committees. The President shall present a progress report of the year's activities at the annual fall meeting of the Association.

Section 5 – President-Elect:

The President-Elect shall assist the President in the performance of his/her duties and shall assume such other duties as are assigned by the President. In the absence of the President, the President-Elect shall assume the duties of the President, and shall preside at the meetings of the Association. In the event that the President shall be unable to serve, the President-Elect shall succeed to the office of the President for the remainder of the President's term. In addition, the President-Elect shall be responsible for the annual Fall Conference of the Association. The President-Elect shall serve as the President of the Association for the term following his/her term as President-Elect. In the event that there is a vacancy in the position of President-Elect as defined in Article IV, Section 9, an election will be held at the next business meeting to fill the vacancy according to Article VI, Section 4 and Article VII.

Section 6 – Secretary:

The Secretary, or a designee approved by the President, shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings of all meetings of the Association, and the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned.

Section 7 – Treasurer:

The Treasurer, or a designee approved by the President, shall receive all revenues of the Association, and shall deposit the same in an approved bank in the name of the Association. The Treasurer shall disburse funds by check for expenses incurred by the Association and shall keep regular and accurate accounts of all funds, and shall, at all times, have the accounts open for inspection by the President, Board of Directors and Executive Committee. The Treasurer shall report in writing at the annual spring conference of the Association on the state of the Association's financial condition and shall submit other financial reports at such time as requested by the President, Board of Directors, or the Executive Committee.

Section 8 – State Representative to the GFOA of the U.S. and Canada:

The State Representative shall act as a liaison between the Association and GFOA, keeping members of the State Association informed of the actions, activities, and available resources of the National Association. The representative shall be a member of GFOA of the U.S. and Canada and attend National Conferences, promote national achievement opportunities, and make award presentations when requested.

Section 9 – Vacancies:

A vacancy may exist in any office for the following reasons:

- (a) Death
- (b) Written resignation
- (c) Physical inability to perform the duties of the office
- (d) Removal from office for cause
- (e) Attendance as defined in the Policy and Procedures

The Board of Directors may, by a two-thirds vote, vacate any office for good cause or whenever the Board of Directors shall determine that the incumbent is physically incapable of performing duties of such office.

The Officer or Director affected shall be given, by certified mail, written notice of any such proposed action of the Board of Directors together with a detailed statement of the reasons thereof at least thirty (30) days before removal action by the Board of Directors.

The Officer or Director affected shall have the right to respond to such notice within twenty (20) days after receipt of such notice. A vacancy in any Officer or Director's position may be filled for the unexpired term by designation of the President, subject to approval by the Board of Directors.

When the position of President becomes vacant, the provisions of Article IV, Section 5 shall apply.

When the position of President-Elect becomes vacant, the provisions of Article IV, Section 5 shall apply.

Any member of the Board except the President-Elect who is absent without excuse for three (3) meetings during the calendar year may be replaced by Presidential appointment. If the President-Elect should need to be replaced, an election will be held at the next business meeting. An excused absence consists of notification to the President and the Secretary. In the event of extenuating circumstances resulting in more than four (4) absences, the Board of Directors may grant a temporary leave of absence for just cause.

ARTICLE V – MEETINGS

Section 1 – Annual Meetings:

There shall be an annual fall and spring business meeting of the Association at a location to be announced by the President. The purpose of the annual fall meeting shall be to elect officers and directors, and to conduct other transactions of business as brought before it. The purpose of the annual spring meeting shall be to present the Annual Report and Financial Statement, and to conduct other transactions of business as brought before it. The annual business meeting may take place concurrently with other scheduled meetings of the Association.

Section 2 – Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the Association may be called by the President on his/her own motion. Special meetings may be called by any other officers upon approval of the Board of Directors. Regular or agency members of the Association may upon approval of the Board of Directors or upon presenting written approval of two-thirds (2/3) of the regular membership may call for a special meeting of the Association. The purpose of a special meeting shall be to conduct other transactions of business as brought before it.

Section 3 – Committee Meetings:

Committees may meet as often as necessary to accomplish their goals.

Section 4 – Notice of Meetings:

Written notice of the purpose, time, and place of all annual and special meetings of the Association shall be given by the Secretary to all members. Such notice shall be served to members not less than fifteen (15), nor more than sixty (60) days prior to the annual or special meeting.

Sections 5 – Quorum:

For any annual or special meeting, a quorum shall consist of a total of fifty (50) paid members, determined by the number of regular and agency members registered for the event during which the meeting is held.

Section 6 – Voting:

Each member having the right to vote shall be entitled to one (1) vote. Except as otherwise provided by the Constitution or By-Laws of the Association, a plurality of the votes cast by the membership at a meeting duly called shall be sufficient to take or authorize action upon the matter which may properly be brought before the meeting. There shall be no proxy vote. Voting officers and directors or constitutional changes can be done online by members.

Section 7 – Authority:

Except when inconsistent with these By-Laws, Robert’s Rules of Order, Revised, shall govern the conduct of the meetings of the Association.

Section 8 – Parliamentarian:

The Secretary of the Board of Directors shall appoint a Parliamentarian for each official business meeting. The Parliamentarian shall assist the President in conducting the Association’s meetings. In the absence of the Secretary, the President may appoint a Parliamentarian.
